Charmian gives courses (Transformational Bodywork) and private sessions in channeling, attunements, 7-level and Multi-Level Aura Heals and chakra clearing/balancing. She helps raise vibrations and works inter-dimensionally. She offers groups and workshops, all aimed at raising people and the planet to the levels of energy needed for 2012 and beyond. 7-Level Aura Healing

Charmian has been working with the 7 levels of the aura for over 20 years.

Each session is individual. During a session, you may receive an attunement from an Ascended Master or Archangel, and information from them.

A 7-level aura healing helps to get to the root cause of underlying emotional and physical blocks. Energy is poured in to help raise and realign your aura. Tears, splits, unevenness and weakness are smoothed out and re-sealed.

Full integration may take a few days, during which you may be aware of changes of habit, more clarity, or a feeling of being on a high, or a troublesome issue may resolve.

These 7-level aura cleansings can have a profound effect. A person can arrive looking grey and drawn, and leave with pink skin and glowing eyes.

Anyone can benefit from 7-level aura healing.

Multi-Level Aura Heal

About Multi-Level Aura Healing.

This exciting new development works on the aura from the 8th dimension upwards and corresponds to the higher chakras that are opening out now, and also our higher dimensional selves.

Not recommended for beginners.

Inter-Dimensional Healing

Multi-Level Aura Healing puts us in touch with higher levels of ourselves, bringing them down into our bodies and consciousness.

Astonishing information is coming through about our souls, monads and levels of our monad (aspects of ourselves beyond the universe). Some of our abilities and characteristics come from these dimensions. Also, surprisingly, some of our blocks may originate here.

But probably the most amazing discovery is that, once accessed through a Multi-Level Aura Heal, these higher levels appear to have created a permanent connection!
